

IS INJURING THE DISTRICT

Land Grabbers Deter the Development of Washoe.

John Wedekind differs from the majority of the prospectors in this neighborhood. Some of the latter have anywhere from a dozen to thirty claims tied up and are doing nothing upon their claims except to perform the little regulation work and then let the properties remain idle for the balance of the year.

Thus prospectors, who go ahead and develop their properties are compelled to wait for the ground to become vacant, which it never will, so long as there is any possibility to "bond to an eastern syndicate."

Mr. Wedekind says that whenever he fails to find ore upon any claim he locates, after making a diligent effort to discover the value of the ground staked off, he removes the notices and allows some one else to take a chance.

The officers of the Wedekind district and the other districts surrounding Reno have power under the laws to prescribe certain regulations that would compel the grabbers of ground to either develop their properties or let some one else do it. The genus hog is very plentiful in this locality and is the worst factor that is holding back the mineral developments of the country.

The Journal has been given the names of three locators who hold a total of 62 claims in this neighborhood and on not one of these claims has there been fifteen feet of work done during the past year. A meeting of miners to settle this question would be a paying proposition.

Has Put on a Fancy Front.

The Elite, Henry Riter's popular resort at the corner of Virginia street and Commercial Row, has undergone thorough renovation and is now one of the handsomest places of the sort between Sacramento and Ogden.

It has been painted within and without in tasteful colors. The reading room has been made a very attractive place. One of the new features is a desk for the benefit of the patrons who feel literary inclined or wish to write a letter home.

Another point of interest is the matter of illumination. A new light, which is a cross between an arc and an incandescent, will attract the human moths. Henry has sent his Lieutenant, Elms Gerber, away to undergo a course of treatment from a beauty doctor, so that he will gibe with his surroundings.

Commercial Row Is Adorning Itself.

The curbing is rapidly being placed in position along Commercial Row. Illuminating will begin in a few days.

Since this municipal improvement was undertaken the property owners along the Row have been refurbishing up. Old awnings have been replaced by new and the paint brush has been lavishly applied. Several of the business houses have put in handsome fronts. Cement walks will be laid in front of all the buildings the coming season.

Another Washoe Mine Purchased.

W. H. Ivey of Washoe City has sold what was known as the Morgan mine in Galena Canyon, Galena Mining District. Mr. Ivey has been sole owner of the mine and mill therewith connected for some time.

The sale was made Tuesday to Utah parties for $15,000. The consideration includes the mill and mill site.

Tried for Battery.

A jury trial was had in the justice court yesterday afternoon. The defendant in the case was Milo Menetta and the prosecuting witness was Mrs. Ferrenti. The prisoner was charged with battery. The proceedings were somewhat amusing. A verdict of not guilty was presented by the jury.

Benefit Entertainment.

An entertainment will be given on Monday evening, October 11th, in the opera house for the benefit of the Catholic Church. Fifteen young ladies are wanted for the chorus. Any willing to volunteer their services are requested to leave their names at The Journal office.

FOOTBALL FANATICS

The Varsity Eleven will Sally Forth to Do or Die.

Jimmie Giles, "Special" Commissioner of The Journal, will accompany the Varsity team below. He will also act in the capacity of chief router for Nevada. That settles it. But, which way?

King Ryan, the trainer of the sagebrush contingency, says that the college team is especially fit for the contest. Keddie, the "big size," is extremely all right, even if he has a bum ankle. Bren Smith has recovered from his sprained arm and will be able to play, even if compelled to wear harness.

The chances are very bright for Nevada winning one of the two games at least. There will be a big rally at the University Monday evening. The boys depart Tuesday morning. The Journal will receive "flashes" from the fields of battle and full reports of the games will be published.

Prospect Mork at Steamboat Springs.

There are about thirty miners now employed in Steamboat district. Mr. Littlefield has his boring apparatus up and is ready to begin prospecting high ground, which lies east of the V. & T. track and adjoins both the Senator and Great Western claims.

An Orderly Place.

The other morning The Journal published an item regarding a row on Commercial Row and located it in the Washoe Lunch Counter. The article was communicated and there was no opportunity at that late hour to verify it. In justice to Messrs. Clausen and Bloch, proprietors of this house, it must be said that the fracas did not occur there. This establishment is run in an orderly manner and does not make a specialty of "rough houses."

The Big Damage Suit.

The case of Christie vs. Lonkey is still dragging its weary way through the District Court. The plaintiff has two or more witnesses to call before resting its case. The trial will probably last a week longer. Many points regarding the liability of employers for the safety of employees are being brought out. In this regard the trial is of special interest.

To Settle a Dispute.

Editor Journal—To settle a controversy, please answer the following: As all circular race courses are substantially the same and the matter of starting horses the same, which way do the horses run in rounding the track, to the right or left?

In the first place the editor of the Journal has yet to see a circular race track, all those with which he has had any experience are elliptical or kite-shaped.

From the grand stand the direction of the horses in running is to the right until a point on the quarter curve tangential to the line of vision is reached, after which the direction is to the left for half the circumference of the track, when the direction of travel is again toward the right.

Viewed from the center of the track the horses are always traveling toward the left of the observer, provided he turns and follows their course.

Will Erect a Brick.

Another brick building is scheduled to be erected in Reno without delay. Frank Chase of New York, owner of the frame buildings on Virginia street south of the Commercial Row alley, will raise the shacks and erect a two-story brick building having a frontage of 50 feet and a depth of 140 feet. It will be ready for occupancy not later than the 1st of May.

Experted a Mine in California.

Prof. Jackson is still in San Francisco. Mr. Finlayson has re-opened his assay office. His ad appears in this issue of The Journal.

The school-house has not yet been constructed. A contract was let to build it for $1200.

New houses are going up all over town.

There are nearly four hundred animals hauling ore to the railroad. Only one running from $100 to $250 per ton is shipped.

A CANAL TREATY.

IT shall turn out that Great Britain's competent authority has agreed to have submitted a treaty, comprehending an isthmian canal, carrying the terms reported in the press dispatches, an important question which has created considerable concern will be speedily settled. It is said that it is agreed that Great Britain not only gives her consent to the abrogation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, but grants formal permission that the United States shall construct and own a canal across the isthmus; such canal shall be altogether neutral in times of peace, admitting all vessels on equal terms and requiring of all equal conditions. But in time of war, or threatened conflict, the United States shall be relieved of all those conditions, and exercise the fullest rights of ownership, not only excluding all foreign vessels, but fortifying or in any other way strengthening its defense or that of our own country, as far as it may be done by indirect means.

There can be no doubt of the ratification of such a treaty by the United States Senate, action that is necessary to make a treaty effective, and where the last draft was killed because it fell so far short of these provisions. Secretary Hay was content to have that sort of a treaty, but the Senate was not, and Great Britain failed to accept the amendments the Senate proposed. It appeared that no agreement was likely to be reached between the two parties and if a canal was completed it would need be done without the formality of a friendly understanding with Great Britain. This was certainly undesirable. The complete breakdown of Great Britain, if it shall be confirmed, comes, therefore, like a thunderbolt from a clear sky. Whether the closer friendship that has been manifested in several ways has contributed to the outcome, or whether Great Britain has become satisfied that she has in reality nothing to lose by it and the possibility of gaining something indirectly, may never be definitely known. Having made such a treaty the United States will be left free to give its undivided attention in the canal matter, to its establishment and construction, a freedom from an annoyance that is most gratifying.

If the agreement is as reported there is room for wonder what Great Britain has been holding off for all these months. The new conditions are all that the most exacting American could ask, considering the existence of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, and yet no more than should be.

HOLLAND'S MODE OF EXPANSION.

THERE is some style in the expansion business as it is being conducted by Holland. Something over seven centuries ago, what is now the Zuider Zee was a fertile plain and the most productive of Holland's possessions. But away back in the thirteenth century the waters of the North Sea broke through the slight coast barrier and inundated the lowlands in the interior, which have since been literally a waste of waters.

Now the Hollanders propose to drive back the sea and reclaim the submerged land. About a quarter of a century ago a small arm of the Zuider Zee was taken possession of and transformed into fertile and productive meadow land. It is now proposed that the entire sea shall be driven out of the country. It is to be effected by a system of dams, sluices and dyke subdivisions, and gradually pumped dry. It is estimated that over 450,000 acres can be thus wrested from the sea and reclaimed, and at the approximate cost of $155,000,000. The Salt Lake Herald in speaking of this remarkable enterprise says: It will be noticed that the problem confronting Holland in its efforts at internal expansion is about the exact antithesis of the one that must be solved by the United States. In western America is a desert that needs only an adequate supply of water to make it the most fertile, farming country in the world. To do this will require the construction of reservoirs and canals of such magnitude that it can only be accomplished by aid from the national government. But the outlay demanded and the difficulties to be encountered, when compared to the vastness of area to be reclaimed, will bring far richer returns than Holland can hope for.

It is high time that the United States government was taking active steps in this important work, and it is to be hoped that the example set by the energetic little European kingdom will stir in the breasts of our own lawmakers a spirit of emulation.

HENEY WILL SOON BE FREE.

JAMES HENEY, of this city, who was sentenced to a term in the penitentiary for robbery of the United States mint about six years ago will soon be a free man. His term will be up on the 28th inst. After that he will begin to do time for his fine, which amounted to $5,000, but which will only take 30 days in the penitentiary to wipe out, as prisoners are allowed nearly $170 a day on a fine of that description. Heney will therefore be liberated on November 27.—Appeal.

The above is correct so far as the sentence is concerned. The Appeal, however, is mistaken in regard to the terms of discharge in relation to the fine. After thirty days the prisoner can apply for his discharge and the matter will be taken before a United States Commissioner for investigation. If the prisoner can show that he has no property in his possession or secreted, or in other words, if he proves that he is unable to pay the fine or any part of it, upon taking such an oath the Commissioner will order his discharge. The Commissioner's action however, is not necessarily final, as either side can appeal from it to the United States District court. Uncle Sam does not pay $170 a day wages to the President, much less to convicts working out a fine.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS.

GOVERNOR SADLER takes a level headed view of the matter of President Roosevelt dining Booker T. Washington. When interviewed upon the subject the Governor said in effect that it was none of his darned business, anymore than it was Roosevelt's, when he, the Governor invited a Piate Indian to stretch his legs under the mountain mahogany and masticate his "chemuck," as he had done, at the gubernatorial mansion in Carson. The editor of the Journal once sat at table with George Washington—not the hatchet George, but the renowned Chief of the Shoshones, and although the high-u-muck-a-muck used his knife in transportation of his provender, the writer relished his bacon and beans as keenly as though partaken with Tom Hymers at a high toned free lunch table in Reno.

PRESS COMMENT.

Weyler, the butcher, now Spanish Minister of War, will ask for an addition to the war budget of $2,000,000 pesetas, to pay pensions and military rewards on account of the war with the United States. The "military rewards" may cause a smile.—Silver State.

Johann Most, the anarchist, has been sent to the New York penitentiary for a year for publishing a seditious article in his paper. Most is accustomed to imprisonment. This is the third time he has been sent to the same prison. But this time it is to be hoped that he will not be permitted, as on the former occasions, to make his quarters in prison editorial rooms, from which to edit his seditious newspaper.—Record Union.

If Cervera has been watching the proceedings in the court of inquiry he must be wondering what would have happened if he had only made a bluff to ram one or two of the other American ships.—Chicago Herald.

Senator Platt is said to have been consulting the president about New York patronage, but there is no report as yet that the president has been consulting Senator Platt about anything.—Salt Lake Herald.

The cities and towns in the United States which are thriving the most are those which have advertised their advantages and resources.—Grass Valley Union.

A threshers' dance will be given by the Carson Valley farmers this week, marking the end of the harvest season.

The heirs of the late Sarah and Thos. Millard of Carson are engaged in a legal battle for possession of $10,000 left by their parents. As five lawyers are engaged in the contest, the heirs will be sadder but wiser people when the battle is over.

The building adjoining Sam Dowling's assay office is being torn down and also the one adjoining the Wilmet house on the north. A couple more are being taken down near the reservoir on the Divide.—Virginia Enterprise.

A FIENDISH ATTACK.

An attack was lately made on C. F. Collier of Cherokee, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kidneys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain, nor sit in a chair except propped by cushions. No remedy helped him until he tried Electric Bitters which effected such a wonderful change that he writes he feels like a new man. This marvelous medicine cures backache and kidney trouble, purifies the blood and builds up your health. Only 50 cents, at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

STEPPED INTO LIVE COALS.

"When a child I burned my foot frightfully," writes W. H. Eads, of Jonesville, Va., "which caused horrible leg sores for 30 years, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured me after everything else failed." "Infallible for Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Sores, Bruises and Piles." Sold by S. J. Hodgkinson, 25 cents.

WHAT'S YOUR FACE WORTH?

Sometimes a fortune, but never, if you have a sallow complexion, a jaundiced look, moth patches and blotches on the skin—all signs of Liver Trouble. But Dr. King's New Life Pills give clear skin, rosy cheeks, rich complexion. Only 25 cents at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

TOT CAUSES NIGHT ALARM.

"One night my brother's baby was taken with Croup," writes Mrs. J. C. Snider, of Crittenden, Ky., "it seemed it would strangle before we could get a doctor, so we gave it Dr. King's New Discovery, which gave quick relief and permanently cured it. We always keep it in the house to protect our children from Croup and Whooping Cough. It cured me of a chronic bronchial trouble that no other remedy would relieve." Infallible for Coughs, Colds, Throat and Lung troubles. Fifty cents and $1. Trial bottles free at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

MINING IN THIS STATE

Culled News of Nevadas' Most Important Industry.

The smelter at the Ludwig mine in Lyon county will soon be turning out ingots.

A smelter may be built in or near Carson. The business men of the capital are negotiating in regard to the matter.

In a few days a representative of a California and Nevada syndicate will arrive on the ground and if the reports on the property are verified by his examination, the Ibez mine will be sold for a consideration of $300,000.—Baker City Democrat.

James Roberts is plaintiff in an action against George Coslett, Thomas Wilkerson and E. Stots to recover damages and a one-fourth interest in lease No. 26. T. L. Odde has been appointed receiver by Judge Jones, of the District Court of this county, before which the papers were filed on Monday of this week. The ground over which the dispute has arisen is very rich.—Bonanza.

From the present indications the oil fields of Elko county are to be developed within a few months. The State papers have steadily copied items from the Elko papers in reference to the project. A California company is now on the ground and sufficient stock has been sold to start the machines. The whole State is interested in the line of State development. Should a big oil well be struck in that section it will lead to other ground being prospected for oil. Sixteen hundred dollars has already been subscribed and is in the hands of the company. It is money that talks in all classes of mining.

NOW IN STOCK.

Pianos, the world renowned Steck, known as the old reliable, also the celebrated Everett, which was played in New York City in Steinway Hall and won the favor of the audience. We also have cheaper pianos to suit all classes and terms the most reasonable.

Our motto is square dealing, looking for future patronage.

SAVES LIFE

Willard, Ill., August 1, 1900.
I was in bad health this spring and could not sit up in bed for four weeks. When I was confined my child died. When I began to sit up I felt so weak and had such terrible pains in my back and hips. I had kidney trouble and falling of the womb. I also had hysterical spells. I was in a bad condition when I received your "Ladies' Birthday Almanac" and read the advertisement of Wine of Cardui and Theodore's Black-Draught. Since April 20th, I have taken four bottles of Wine of Cardui and three packages of Theodore's Black-Draught. I feel like a new person now. I can do all my work and can walk out to see any of my neighbors. I believe I would have been in the grave had it not been for Wine of Cardui. IT SAVED MY LIFE.
Mrs. ALICE DAVIS.

It is well that women are more patient than men. Few men could bear the bitter pangs; the agony and distress that women endure. Thousands of women have come to look upon suffering as a duty of their sex. But there are many instances of this heroic fortitude which now renders unnecessary. Women need no longer suffer for modesty's sake. Wine of Cardui brings relief to modest women in the privacy of their homes. Many of the best homes in this city are never without this great medicine. It cures whites and falling of the womb and completely eradicates these dragging periodical pains. Mrs. Davis' cure shows you conclusively what you may expect if you follow her example and take Wine of Cardui. Theodore's Black-Draught aids Wine of Cardui by regulating the stomach and bowels. When you ask your druggist for these medicines, be sure you get them. It was Wine of Cardui and Theodore's Black-Draught that saved Mrs. Davis' life. Never take a substitute.
